

Puppy Life

One day, a girl named Rosey went to the pet store. She saw a lot of cute pets there, but only one caught her eye the most. She saw a puppy and begged her parents to get it. Her parents agreed and said that only if she can feed it and scoop its poop. She named her dog Lily and took her home. She was so excited, and as soon as she got home, she texted her brother. She said, "We got a puppy". Rosey played with Lily three days straight, and when Rosey went to school, Lily snuck out of the house. When Rosey got home she called Lily's name, but she didn't run up to her. She searched everywhere and still couldn't find her. She went to her parents and told them that she lost Lily. So, Rosey and her parents printed out fliers and walked around the neighborhood to see if anyone saw her. Soon later a neighbor named Ally found Rosey's dog and returned her back to Rosey. Rosey was so happy and thrilled that Lily was back, later on Rosey wanted another pet. She asked her brother if he wanted a pet, so they would have two pet animals. Her brother agreed and without telling their parents, they snuck out of the house and went to the pet store. They looked for another puppy and found the perfect one who would play with Lily. It was a boy and they named him Max, they bought him home and showed him to their parents. Their parents got mad, but a few days later they got over it because of how cute Max looked. Max and Lily are now [#]best friends and played together everyday.
